

Design Concept III - Industrial Scandinavian

Bringing together the rawness of industrial design with the eccentricity of boho, and then adding in a splash of sophistication, this living and dining space serves to create a warm, cozy and collected experience. Guitars displayed on the wall show a splash of personality that is brought out further by the raw texture of the wall behind it.

Entrance hallway decor

Dining Area

Living Area

